Groomers at an Elementary School in Los Angeles

My principal is protecting groomers on campus. I work at an elementary school in Los Angeles. I'm the music teacher. My principal brought in a DJ to supplement our curriculum and he did everything but teach DJing. He kept bringing in all these people, but no one was actually teaching my students DJ skills. One of the people that he brought in was a photographer that was taking pictures of the students without permission, but he gave me a bad vibe. It felt really icky. So, I put them out. I put them out of my classroom. Then the principal brought in a dance teacher from a neighboring school. And because she's not actually a teacher, she's a choreographer, but she's not a teacher. She can't break down the steps for my students. she'd have to bribe them with money. And I told her she cannot do that. So then she started giving treats like um suckers and gummy treats, but she would talk really bad about my students and she would talk really bad to the rest of the staff. So I put her out as well. Before that, my principal brought in a substitute teacher who then she promoted to coordinator. And when she became coordinator, she got rid of another sub who didn't respect her authority. He didn't do what she said. So, she set him up to get fired and he was displaced.

She brought in her she she recommended her son to supplement our program because she knew that he had worked with the DJ that we had before he was removed. He worked volunteer hours I don't know for about two 3 weeks until he got processed until he had his interview. And in his interview, he said that he was trans. I don't care because in my program, you're not black, you're not white, you're not male, you're not female, you're not straight, you're not gay, you're not anything but a musician. I told him in the interview, you are not to talk about your personal life at all. You are only to help the children develop their skills as a musician.

So, the dance teacher and the assistant got along famously before they were both put out of my program. And because he's transgender, she could she asked to see his body. And he said, "Oh, you want to see?" I said, "Nope." Before I could get the nope out of my mouth, he shows me a naked picture of his body. I put my hand up. I'm like, "I don't want to see that. that's, you know, you know, thank you, that's not for me. He puts it away, but then a week later, he flashes me. I'm at work. I have never shown my naked body to anybody at work. Never.

But I tell him keep his I tell him put his titties away and that was it. The following week, April 15th, 2024, he comes into work late as usual. I'm getting on his case about him coming in late. I'm getting on his case about being on the internet with the kids. I'm getting on his case about playing for the kids. I'm getting on his case about um the way he's engaging with my students cuz he's confusing to my first graders. Um they don't and my kindergarters, they don't really understand and they don't have tap. So they mess with him and he gets mad and he'll erupt and he'll he's really rough with the black girls. And I told him, I said, "You can't yell at the girls. You look like a boy. You cannot yell at the girls. You can talk firmly with the boys, but you cannot yell at my girls because most of the time it's inappropriate. Like he's he's yelling at them because they're not sitting up or they're not I I don't know. Just it would always be something foolish. So when he comes in late on April 15th, he threatens me because I get on his case about again coming in late and why is he doing inventory on a piece of paper instead of in the computer? He's drawing lines with a pencil on paper and then writing in each instrument and the total of the count. It doesn't make any sense. Put it in the computer.

So, because I got on his case, he threatens me. He said, "You better watch it." I better watch what you're going to jump across the table or you going to try and get me fired like your mama did because his mom came in as a sub and she got the other sub removed. So, because she had that sub removed, she had to take over his class. She could not take over his class. They disbanded the class. They broke it up into two grades because it was a four, five combo. They made it, she took the fifth grade class and they gave they brought in another sub to do the fourth grade.

I then asked him to leave because he didn't say anything after I asked him to clarify what he was talking about. He wouldn't leave. So, I take the student that was from her fifth grade class, her worst student, and I take them take him to the office with me. I tell the principal, you know, this is not going to work. But because my principal kept the other two groomers on campus, he knew he wasn't going anywhere. So he comes and joins the office after the principal tells me to write down a list of his duties, what I expect him to do, what he needs to do, when he needs to do it. I send an email that night. She asked to see the email before I send it, but I know that she's on some foolishness, so I send it anyway. He then files a complaint of sexual harassment because I tell him to put his titties away when he flashed me. When it gets down to HR, he tells HR it's an accident. How is it an accident? Because he then starts to stalk my classroom because after I put him out, he continues to come around my classroom talking loud on his phone, walk, circling my bungalow. I'm in the back of the school with the gate constantly open. People come in and out of that gate all the time. So much so that we lose, I don't know, 10 kids a year. They sneak out the back gate. This is an elementary school by a major boulevard. We're like three blocks from a major boulevard.

So, our campus is wide open. But she won't let she won't get rid of these people. After she puts after I put him out, I find out from another student that he's shown her the naked pictures. I believe her immediately because he showed me.

I tell person I tell the I tell the principal and she's like, "She ignores me." I tell everybody. They all ignore me. They don't want to do anything about it. He goes around and tells everybody I'm homophobic. And that's why he left my room because I'm homophobic. For a whole year, I'm being harassed by the coord the coordinator for my program. She doesn't want to have anything to do with me and my program because this child has lied and because I think she's getting kickbacks from the dance teacher cuz she's bringing in the dance teacher at $25,000 a concert. No degree, no specialty, no skill. $25,000 to teach dance to six classes. Make it make sense.

I think that the principal is also getting kickbacks because she's adamant at protecting these three groomers.

So, I have a Canva document that has about 300 pages of pictures, texts, emails detailing everything.

Let me know if you can help me get the word out to get these people off our campus. Thank you.
